

Jeremy Decorating his room for Christmas.

Rebecca relaxing at our Cotswold Lake House.

Happy New Year!

Cocklebury Farmhouse Homes hopes you have all enjoyed the festive period and wish you all a happy new year. This year we celebrated with a Christmas party with local entertainment duo “On the Edge”. The following week we staged our Christmas meal where Santa and his Elf made an appearance to drop off some presents.

Peter on a recent trip to Dublin to learn about his Irish heritage and enjoy his favourite pint of Guinness.

Goodbye Andrew

In November last year Andrew sadly passed away. Andy had been part of the Cocklebury Farmhouse family for over 25 years and will be sorely missed.

College Students

Our Wiltshire college students before creating Christmas decorations in art class.

Ann's trip to see Cliff

Ann stayed over-night in the capital to see Sir Cliff Richard at the London Apollo.

Adam's Bodmin Breakout

Adam enjoying his overnight stay at Bodmin Jail, Cornwall. Malmesbury road's resident chef was treated to a private tour of the kitchens by Bodmin Jail Hotel's Head chef.

Spring Party to Celebrate Ann's 60th & Karen's 50th Birthdays

In February we will be hosting a spring party at the Chippenham Rugby Club to Celebrate Ann and Karen's milestone birthdays.

